01/07/2016	10	STATUS REPORT and Renewed Proposal for FOIA Production Schedule by ENERGY FUTURE COALITION, URBAN AIR INITIATIVE, INC.. (Gustafson, Adam) (Entered: 01/07/2016)
01/11/2016		MINUTE ORDER. On December 21, 2015, the Court referred this matter for mediation and ordered that a joint status report be filed by January 29, 2016. 2 Order (Dec. 21, 2015). On January 7, 2016, plaintiff unilaterally submitted its own 10 status report instead. It is therefore ORDERED that defendant shall provide the Court with its current proposed schedule for the production of responsive records by January 12, 2016. Signed by Judge Amy Berman Jackson on 1/11/2016. (lcabj2) (Entered: 01/11/2016)
01/11/2016		Set/Reset Deadlines: Defendant shall provide the Court with its current proposed schedule for the production of responsive records by 1/12/2016. (jth) (Entered: 01/11/2016)
01/12/2016	11	STATUS REPORT Pursuant to The Court's January 11, 2016 Minute Order by GINA MCCARTHY. (Attachments: # 1 Exhibit A)(Truong, John) (Entered: 01/12/2016)
01/13/2016	12	REPLY re 11 Status Report filed by ENERGY FUTURE COALITION, URBAN AIR INITIATIVE, INC.. (Gustafson, Adam) (Entered: 01/13/2016)
01/13/2016		MINUTE ORDER. After consideration of all of the matters set forth in all of the pleadings, the Court will exercise its authority to supervise and oversee production, see Citizens for Responsibility &amp; Ethics in Washington v. FEC , 711 F.3d 180, 189 (D.C. Cir. 2013), by issuing the following schedule. It is ORDERED that defendant shall review and produce responsive, non-exempt, and non-CBI records to plaintiffs on a rolling basis on January 15, 2016, January 29, 2016, February 15, 2016, and February 29, 2016, and it shall produce all responsive CBI records not entitled to confidential treatment by May 31, 2016. It is FURTHER ORDERED that of the more than 15,000 records that have already been identified, defendant shall review and produce responsive emails first. The law is clear that it is not improper for a party to utilize FOIA to obtain records from the government for use in litigation. See, e.g., North v. Walsh , 881 F.2d 1088, 1096 (D.C. Cir. 1989) (rejecting agency's contention that the plaintiff was improperly using FOIA "as an adjunct discovery device" and emphasizing that "[t]he plaintiff's rights in a FOIA action do not depend on his or her identity" as a private litigant). But since the related matter pending before the D.C. Circuit is a challenge to administrative action that will be decided based upon the administrative record, and even plaintiffs' proposed schedule would provide for the completion of production after the date the oral argument in that case is scheduled, the Court does not believe that the February 11 date has a significant bearing upon what the schedule of production in this case should be. The complaint alleges that there was a delay in initiating any production at all, and that delay prompted this law suit, so given the time that plaintiffs have been waiting, the material that is of most importance to the plaintiffs should be produced first. But since the defendant is now making diligent efforts to comply with its statutory obligations, and it has modified the schedule it originally proposed to set interim milestones that require two partial productions in January, the Court will not order the defendant to accelerate the pace of production further. Defendant shall submit reports to the Court updating it on the status of the rolling production on February 1, 2016, March 1, 2016, and June 1, 2016, and those reports should indicate the number of records reviewed, the number produced, and the number of any records withheld in full or in part. On June 13, 2016, the parties shall submit a joint status report identifying any issues that remain to be resolved and proposing a schedule for further proceedings, if any. The defendant is not obliged to prepare a Vaughn index or to submit materials related to the adequacy of the search pending further order of the Court. Finally, the mediation referral in this case is hereby terminated and the requirement of the January 29, 2016 status report set in the Court's January 11, 2016 Minute Order is vacated. SO ORDERED. Signed by Judge Amy Berman Jackson on 1/13/2016. (lcabj2) (Entered: 01/13/2016)

01/13/2016		Set/Reset Deadlines: Defendant shall submit Reports, updating the Court on the status of the rolling production on 2/1/2016, 3/1/2016, and 6/1/2016. Those reports should indicate the number of records reviewed, the number produced, and the number of any records withheld in full or in part. On 6/13/2016, the parties shall submit a Joint Status Report identifying any issues that remain to be resolved and Proposing a Schedule for further proceedings, if any.(jth) (Entered: 01/13/2016)

08/29/2017		MINUTE ORDER. After reviewing defendant's Vaughn Index, plaintiffs discovered that EPA had not produced "some email attachments as non-responsive." See Pls.' Statement of Facts [Dkt. # 21-2] para. 40. On December 21, 2016, defendant justified not producing these email attachments on the grounds that it considered the attachments and emails to be separate "records" for FOIA purposes. Ex. 3 to Sargeant Suppl. Decl. [Dkt. # 28-3]; Am. Immigration Lawyers Assn v. Exec. Office for Immigration Review, 830 F.3d 667, 677 (D.C. Cir. 2016) ("Under FOIA, agencies instead in effect define a 'record' when they undertake the process of identifying records that are responsive to a request."). But, the parties acknowledge that on December 21, 2016, defendant produced 180 non-responsive documents to plaintiffs. See Pls.' Cross-Reply [Dkt. # 34] at 4; Def.'s Sur-Reply [Dkt # 36]; Ex. 3 to Sargeant Suppl. Decl. [Dkt. # 28-3]. These documents are allegedly email attachments that are non-responsive to plaintiffs' FOIA request, but were attached to emails that are responsive to the request. In their cross-reply, plaintiffs still seek summary judgment on "all remaining email attachments redacted as non-responsive." Cross-Reply at 5. In its sur-reply, defendant does not address whether its December 21 production included all allegedly non-responsive email attachments or just a sub-set. See generally Def.'s Sur-Reply. Because the Court has an obligation to determine if a live controversy exists before it, defendant must inform the Court whether its production consisted of all allegedly non-responsive email attachments, making this portion of plaintiffs' motion moot, by September 1, 2017. See Transwestern Pipeline Co. v. FERC, 897 F.2d 570, 575 (D.C. Cir. 1990) ("A case is moot if events have so transpired that the decision will neither presently affect the parties' rights nor have a more-than-speculative change of affecting them in the future."). If the December production only included a sub-set of the set of email attachments originally not produced on the grounds that they were not responsive, defendant must provide a supplemental declaration stating the number of email attachments that have not been produced because they are non-responsive, and the basis for any differentiation between the attachments that were released and those that have not been produced. SO ORDERED. Signed by Judge Amy Berman Jackson on 8/29/2017. (lcabj2) (Entered: 08/29/2017)

09/25/2017	50	ORDER. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 56, and for the reasons stated in the accompanying Memorandum Opinion, it is hereby ORDERED that defendant's 19 motion for summary judgment is GRANTED IN PART AND DENIED IN PART, and plaintiffs' 21 cross-motion for partial summary judgment is DENIED. Because EPA's declaration does not describe an adequate search in response to plaintiffs' FOIA request, the matter is remanded to the agency to conduct a further search for responsive records, to provide a more detailed justification for the adequacy of the searches, and to release any reasonably segregable non-exempt material to plaintiffs consistent with FOIA. The parties shall file a joint status report by November 27, 2017, to update the Court on whether further proceedings are necessary in this matter. While the matter is on remand, the parties are ORDERED to meet and confer in an effort to respond to plaintiffs' contention that EPA "is still withholding 17 attachments that it erroneously claims to have previously released in full or in part." Resp. to Court's Order [Dkt. # 48] at 1. The agency is hereby ORDERED to produce any of the e-mail attachments it has yet to produce, and it must provide the Court with an updated declaration indicating that it has done so when it reports to the Court on the status of the renewed search. See Order for details. SO ORDERED. Signed by Judge Amy Berman Jackson on 9/25/2017. (lcabj2) (Entered: 09/25/2017)

10/04/2017		MINUTE ORDER denying 52 Motion to Clarify. The Vaughn index prepared by defendant EPA revealed that the agency had withheld attachments to responsive emails, and it characterized those attachments in the index as "non-responsive." See Pls.' Statement of Facts [Dkt. # 21-2] para. 40. On December 21, 2016, defendant justified its failure to produce these email attachments with the explanation that it considered the attachments and emails to be separate "records" for FOIA purposes. Ex. 3 to Sargeant Suppl. Decl. [Dkt. # 28-3]. In the course of the summary judgment briefing, plaintiffs pressed their position that the records should be produced, see Pls.' Cross-Mem. [Dkt. # 21] at 27-28; Pls.' Cross-Reply [Dkt. # 34] at 20-22, but since defendant agreed to produce the material, see Def.'s Consent Mot. for Extension of Time [Dkt. # 47]; Resp. to Court's Order [Dkt. # 48], the Court ruled that the issue was moot. Mem. Op. [Dkt. # 51] at 11 n.6. Plaintiffs dedicated only one page of their combined memorandum to this issue, but they have since filed three additional submissions on the matter, including the instant motion. In the absence of a live controversy, there is no basis for the Court to issue an advisory opinion concerning the manner in which the records were originally labelled, and there is nothing ambiguous about the Court's order that the records be produced. SO ORDERED. Signed by Judge Amy Berman Jackson on 10/4/2017. (lcabj2) (Entered: 10/04/2017)

12/12/2017		MINUTE ORDER. The parties shall file another joint status report by January 19, 2018. Defendant should proceed with the renewed search in accordance with the Court's 51 memorandum opinion. Defendant will be expected to justify any limits it imposes on the time period to be searched or the number of potential custodians conducting a search with the new terms when it is called upon to establish the adequacy of the search in the future.
